

PATENT

Meaning: A patent is a legal right granted to an inventor or assignee for a specific period, giving them exclusive rights to make, use, or sell an invention or design.

1. The inventor filed for a patent to protect his groundbreaking technology.
2. After years of research, she finally received a patent for her innovative design.
3. The company aggressively defended its patent against alleged infringements by competitors.
4. Obtaining a patent can significantly enhance a startup's valuation in the marketplace.
5. He was thrilled to learn that his idea was eligible for a patent, validating his hard work.
6. The inventor was thrilled when she received the patent for her revolutionary new device.
7. Securing a patent can be a lengthy process, but it is essential for protecting intellectual property.
8. Many companies invest heavily in research and development to create products that can be patented.
9. His groundbreaking idea was so unique that it easily qualified for a patent approval.
10. She plans to license her patent to several manufacturers to maximize its commercial potential.
11. The inventor secured a patent for his innovative solar panel design.
12. After years of research, she finally received a patent for her groundbreaking medical device.
13. Discussing the ramifications of patent law can lead to lively debates among entrepreneurs.
14. He was thrilled to learn that his idea was eligible for a patent, protecting it from competitors.
15. The company faced legal challenges when it was accused of infringing on a rival's patent.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/patent>