

PATHOGENIC

Meaning: Pathogenic refers to microorganisms, such as bacteria or viruses, that can cause disease or illness in a host organism.

1. The researchers focused on identifying pathogenic microorganisms in the contaminated water supply.
2. Certain strains of bacteria are known to be pathogenic and can cause severe illness in humans.
3. Understanding the mechanisms by which pathogenic viruses replicate is crucial for developing effective treatments.
4. The study aimed to investigate the pathogenic potential of the newly discovered fungi in agricultural settings.
5. Preventative measures are essential to reduce the risk of pathogenic infections in vulnerable populations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pathogenic>