

PATHOLOGIST

Meaning: A pathologist is a medical doctor who specializes in diagnosing diseases by examining tissues, cells, and organs.

1. The pathologist examined the tissue samples to determine the cause of the patient's illness.
2. During the conference, the pathologist presented groundbreaking research on cancer diagnostics.
3. A skilled pathologist can often identify diseases that are not visible during a standard examination.
4. The pathologist's report was crucial in establishing the diagnosis and guiding the treatment plan.
5. After the autopsy, the pathologist provided insights that helped unravel the mysterious circumstances of the death.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pathologist>