

PATRIARCH

Meaning: Patriarch: a male head of a family or group, often regarded as the primary authority figure responsible for making important decisions and maintaining traditions.

1. The patriarch of the family insisted on maintaining the tradition during the holiday gathering.
2. In many cultures, the patriarch is seen as the primary authority figure who makes important decisions.
3. The novel explores the complexities of a patriarch's influence on his children's lives.
4. After years of struggle, the patriarch finally passed down his wealth to the next generation.
5. As the eldest son, he felt the weight of becoming the new patriarch after his father's passing.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/patriarch>