

PATTER

Meaning: Patter (verb): to make a series of light, quick, and rhythmic sounds, often associated with rain or soft footsteps.

1. The rain began to patter softly against the window, creating a soothing melody.
2. As the children played outside, the sound of their laughter seemed to patter like the gentle drizzle.
3. She could hear the leaves patter on the roof as the wind picked up and swirled around her.
4. In the quiet of the early morning, the patter of tiny feet across the floor was a delightful reminder of her pets.
5. He listened to the patter of his own footsteps echoing through the empty hallway, feeling a sense of solitude.
6. The gentle patter of rain against the window created a soothing ambiance in the room.
7. As the children played outside, the sound of their laughter mixed with the soft patter of falling leaves.
8. She could hear the patter of tiny feet as the kittens scampered across the kitchen floor.
9. The rhythmic patter of the drummer kept everyone in sync during the performance.
10. In the quiet of the morning, the patter of a distant stream brought a sense of peace to the forest.
11. The gentle patter of rain against the window created a soothing atmosphere.
12. Children love to listen to the patter of tiny feet running across the hardwood floors.
13. As the evening wore on, the patter of distant thunder added to the drama of the storm.
14. The leaves rustled softly, accompanied by the subtle patter of droplets falling from the trees.
15. She found comfort in the rhythmic patter of her fingers tapping on the keyboard as she worked.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/patter>