

PAUNCH

Meaning: Paunch: a large or protruding belly, often associated with excess weight or a rounded abdomen.

1. The old man's paunch jiggled as he laughed heartily at the joke.
2. She wore a fitted dress that cleverly concealed her growing paunch.
3. After a season of indulging in rich desserts, he noticed his paunch becoming more pronounced.
4. The comedian made a joke about his own paunch, eliciting laughter from the audience.
5. He started jogging to trim his paunch and improve his overall health.
6. The old man had a noticeable paunch that sagged over his belt.
7. After years of indulgent eating, he developed quite the paunch that he couldn't ignore anymore.
8. She poked fun at her brother's paunch, joking that it was a badge of his culinary adventures.
9. As he aged, his paunch became a constant reminder of his once active lifestyle.
10. The comedian's paunch added to his charm, making his jokes feel even more relatable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/paunch>