

PAVID

Meaning: PAVID: characterized by fear or timidity; timid or apprehensive.

1. The pavid child hesitated at the edge of the playground, unsure of joining the other kids.
2. His pavid demeanor in the face of criticism often led others to underestimate his capabilities.
3. Despite her pavid nature, she surprised everyone by stepping up to lead the group.
4. The pavid expressions of the audience revealed their collective anxiety before the performance.
5. While some thrived in the spotlight, he preferred to remain pavid and observe from the sidelines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pavid>