

PAVISOR

Meaning: A pavisor is a protective device or shield used in medieval combat and tournaments to safeguard knights and combatants.

1. The pavisor provided crucial protection for the knight during the battle.
2. In medieval tournaments, a pavisor was essential for safeguarding the combatants.
3. Crafted from sturdy materials, the pavisor was designed to deflect incoming projectiles.
4. Historically, the pavisor was often elaborately decorated to reflect the wearer's status.
5. The use of a pavisor allowed the knight to maintain a clear line of sight while in combat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pavisor>