

PEAK

Meaning: Peak: the highest point or maximum level of something, such as a mountain or a period of demand.

1. The hikers reached the peak of the mountain just as the sun began to rise.
2. During the summer months, the demand for ice cream tends to peak around the Fourth of July.
3. She felt a sense of accomplishment as she stood at the peak, overlooking the breathtaking landscape.
4. The company's profits hit their peak last quarter, but they are projected to decline this year.
5. He trained for months to improve his performance and finally achieved his peak during the championship.
6. The mountain's peak was shrouded in mist, creating an ethereal atmosphere.
7. During the summer months, the park sees a peak in visitor numbers due to the warm weather.
8. After years of training, she finally reached the peak of her athletic career at the championship.
9. The researchers documented the peak levels of pollution recorded during the winter months.
10. He stood at the peak of his profession, recognized for his groundbreaking contributions to science.
11. The hikers reached the peak just as the sun began to set.
12. During the summer months, the peaks of the mountains are often crowded with tourists.
13. The athlete performed at his peak, setting a new record in the process.
14. After years of hard work, she finally achieved the peak of her career.
15. The view from the peak was breathtaking, with valleys stretching as far as the eye could see.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peak>