

PECCABLE

Meaning: Peccable: capable of making mistakes or committing faults; fallible.

1. His peccable nature often led him into trouble despite his good intentions.
2. The artist's peccable sense of proportion in her early works was evident, but it improved over time.
3. Even the most experienced leaders can be peccable, making decisions that they later regret.
4. Her peccable judgment in trusting the wrong people cost her dearly in the end.
5. Despite his charm, he was undeniably peccable, often falling prey to his own flaws.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peccable>