

PECCAVI

Meaning: "Peccavi" is a Latin term meaning "I have sinned," commonly used to express confession of wrongdoing.

1. In a moment of reflection, he confessed his sins with a simple utterance of "peccavi."
2. The scholar explained that "peccavi" is a Latin term meaning "I have sinned," often used in theological contexts.
3. During the confession, the priest noted that true repentance starts with acknowledging one's peccavi.
4. As she wrote in her journal, she felt a weight lift when she finally admitted her peccavi to herself.
5. In literature, characters often confront their peccavi as a pivotal moment of personal growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peccavi>