

PECTINATION

Meaning: Pectination refers to a comb-like arrangement or structure, particularly found in biological contexts such as the appendages or gills of certain organisms.

1. Pectination is a term often used in biology to describe the comb-like structure of certain appendages.
2. The pectination of the crab's gills allows for efficient filtering of water.
3. In botany, pectination can refer to the arrangement of leaves or petals in a specific pattern.
4. The intricate pectination of the butterfly's antennae enhances its sensory capabilities.
5. Researchers studied the pectination of various species to understand evolutionary adaptations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pectination>