

PECTINIFORM

Meaning: Pectiniform refers to a structure resembling or having the shape of pecten, typically characterized by a frilled or lobed form that enhances functions such as water retention or buoyancy.

1. The pectiniform structure of the plant's leaves allows for efficient water retention.
2. In marine biology, some species exhibit pectiniform adaptations that aid in their buoyancy.
3. The artist used pectiniform patterns to enhance the visual appeal of her sculpture.
4. Researchers are studying the pectiniform features of certain coral species to understand their growth.
5. The ancient artifact displayed a pectiniform design that suggested a connection to agricultural practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pectiniform>