

PECTORILOQUOUS

Meaning: Pectoriloquous refers to a voice or sound that is clear and distinct, often resonating from the chest and easily audible over distances.

1. The pectoriloquous sound echoed through the room, leaving everyone in awe of its clarity.
2. Her pectoriloquous voice carried effortlessly across the crowded hall, captivating the audience.
3. In the theater, the pectoriloquous performances of the actors made every word resonate with emotion.
4. He had a pectoriloquous quality to his speech that made even mundane topics feel profound.
5. The teacher praised her student for developing such a pectoriloquous style in his presentations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pectoriloquous>