

PECTOUS

Meaning: Pectous refers to the characteristic of containing or relating to pectin, a substance that contributes to the structural integrity and gelatinous properties of plants and fruits.

1. The pectous fibers in the plant's structure contribute to its overall strength and resilience.
2. Researchers are studying the pectous nature of certain fruits to enhance their jelly-making qualities.
3. The pectous layer of the cell wall plays a crucial role in plant growth and development.
4. In culinary applications, the pectous qualities of apples are essential for achieving the desired texture in jams.
5. Understanding the pectous components in vegetables can lead to improved food preservation techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pectous>