

PECULATION

Meaning: Peculation refers to the embezzlement or misappropriation of funds or property, typically in a position of trust.

1. The investigation revealed instances of peculation within the organization that shocked the board members.
2. His downfall was largely attributed to his involvement in peculation, which eroded public trust in his leadership.
3. After extensive audits, the company implemented new measures to prevent any future peculation by its employees.
4. The politician was accused of peculation, leading to widespread calls for his resignation and a thorough inquiry.
5. Despite the evidence of peculation, many of his supporters remained loyal, claiming it was a political witch hunt.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peculation>