

PECULATOR

Meaning: Peculator: a person who embezzles or misappropriates funds, typically in a position of trust.

1. The accountant was discovered to be a peculator, embezzling funds from the company's accounts.
2. In a shocking turn of events, the mayor was accused of being a peculator, misusing public funds for personal gain.
3. The investigation revealed that the peculator had been siphoning off money for years without anyone noticing.
4. After the audit, the organization's board was horrified to learn that one of their own was a notorious peculator.
5. The community rallied together to demand justice after the peculator's actions were exposed in the local newspaper.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peculator>