

PECUNIARY

Meaning: Pecuniary refers to something that is related to or consists of money or financial matters.

1. The lawyer explained the pecuniary damages that the client could claim in the lawsuit.
2. She was primarily motivated by pecuniary interests rather than by a desire to help others.
3. The company faced serious pecuniary challenges after the economic downturn.
4. His pecuniary responsibilities increased significantly after he became the head of the household.
5. Investors are often wary of ventures that appear to offer only pecuniary benefits without social value.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pecuniary>