

PEDANTICLY

Meaning: PEDANTICALLY: In a manner that is excessively concerned with minor details or rules, often to the point of being tedious or overly meticulous.

1. She explained the rules pedantically, leaving no room for misunderstanding.
2. His pedantically detailed report bored the audience, who were eager for a more concise overview.
3. The professor often critiqued students' essays pedantically, focusing on minutiae rather than overall arguments.
4. She approached the project pedantically, ensuring every last detail was meticulously documented.
5. During the debate, he pedantically corrected every small error, frustrating his opponents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pedanticly>