

PEDDLE

Meaning: To peddle means to sell goods or merchandise, often by traveling from place to place or directly to consumers.

1. She decided to peddle homemade crafts at the local farmers' market.
2. The salesman would peddle his wares door to door, seeking out potential customers.
3. They aimed to peddle their new app to small businesses looking to improve efficiency.
4. In the bustling streets, vendors would peddle everything from fresh produce to handmade jewelry.
5. He was known to peddle dubious claims about the effectiveness of his miracle potion.
6. He decided to peddle homemade jams at the local farmer's market.
7. The street vendor would peddle his wares from a small cart every afternoon.
8. In an effort to make some extra cash, she began to peddle vintage clothing online.
9. It's important to peddle products that align with your values and ethics.
10. They traveled from town to town to peddle their handmade crafts and art.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peddle>