

PEDESTRIAN

Meaning: Pedestrian (adjective): Relating to or designed for people walking, especially in the context of pathways or access routes.

1. The new park design includes a wide pedestrian pathway that connects the community to the riverfront.
2. As the city grows, planners are prioritizing pedestrian access to reduce traffic congestion.
3. He was a pedestrian who often walked to work, enjoying the fresh air and morning sun.
4. The pedestrian signal changed, allowing the crowd to cross the busy intersection safely.
5. In urban environments, a pedestrian-friendly layout can significantly enhance the quality of life.
6. The pedestrian crossed the street cautiously, glancing both ways before stepping onto the crosswalk.
7. In the bustling city, a pedestrian bridge made it easier for residents to navigate busy intersections.
8. She felt a sense of freedom as she walked along the pedestrian path lined with blooming cherry trees.
9. The local government has plans to improve pedestrian safety by adding more crosswalks and traffic signals.
10. Despite the heavy traffic, the pedestrian was determined to reach the park on the other side of the road.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pedestrian>