

PEDICULAR

Meaning: Pedicular refers to a characteristic related to or resembling a louse or parasitic nature, often indicating a close association with or dependence on a host.

1. The pedicular nature of the parasite made it difficult to treat without proper care.
2. Researchers found that the pedicular structure of the plant enhanced its ability to absorb nutrients.
3. In her studies, she focused on the pedicular characteristics that differentiate species within the same genus.
4. The pedicular attachment of the organism was essential for its survival in the host environment.
5. Understanding the pedicular adaptations of these creatures can offer insights into their evolutionary history.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pedicular>