

PEEL

Meaning: Peel (verb): to remove the outer layer or skin from a fruit or vegetable.

1. I like to peel the skin off my apples before eating them.
2. After you peel the potatoes, make sure to rinse them thoroughly.
3. She watched the chef expertly peel the orange in one long strip.
4. To make the salad, you need to peel the cucumbers and chop them finely.
5. He found it therapeutic to peel away the layers of paint from the old furniture.
6. I like to peel the skin off the apples before making a pie.
7. As the sun began to set, the layers of the sky seemed to peel away to reveal brilliant colors.
8. She decided to peel back the wallpaper to see what lay underneath.
9. He carefully peeled the orange, savoring the zesty aroma that filled the air.
10. The team worked diligently to peel away the layers of the problem until they reached a solution.
11. She decided to peel the apple before adding it to the salad.
12. After the paint dried, he began to peel it off the wall in large strips.
13. To make the recipe easier, she suggested that he peel the potatoes in advance.
14. The orange was ripe and easy to peel, revealing its juicy interior.
15. As the sun set, the sky began to peel away layers of orange and purple hues.
16. I like to peel the skin off apples before baking them into a pie.
17. She carefully began to peel the wallpaper away, revealing the old paint beneath.
18. After the shower, he would peel off his wet clothes and wrap himself in a towel.
19. To make the salad, you need to peel the cucumbers and slice them thinly.
20. As the sun began to set, the orange sky seemed to peel away layers of the day's brightness.
21. She decided to peel the orange carefully to avoid spilling the juice.
22. The recipe instructed us to peel the potatoes before boiling them.
23. As autumn approached, the leaves began to peel away from the trees.

24. He watched as she used a knife to expertly peel the apple in one continuous strip.
25. She began to peel the orange, revealing its bright, juicy segments.
26. After a long day, he likes to peel off his work clothes and relax at home.
27. The kids watched in awe as the magician made the apple peel itself.
28. To make the dish more flavorful, don't forget to peel the garlic before chopping it.
29. He carefully learned how to peel the wallpaper off the wall without damaging the plaster underneath.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/peel>*