

PELICAN

Meaning: A pelican is a large water bird known for its long beak and distinctive throat pouch, often found near coastal and freshwater habitats.

1. The pelican gracefully glided over the shimmering waters in search of fish.
2. With its large beak and distinctive pouch, the pelican is a fascinating bird to observe.
3. At sunset, the pelicans gathered along the shore, creating a picturesque scene against the fading light.
4. As the storm approached, the pelican took refuge on a nearby cliff, waiting for calmer weather.
5. Watching the pelican dive into the sea is a breathtaking spectacle of nature's precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pelican>