

PELTER

Meaning: PELTER (verb): To strike or attack repeatedly with forceful blows or projectiles, often used to describe the action of something falling or being thrown in a relentless manner.

1. The storm peltered the windows with relentless sheets of rain.
2. Children laughed as they peltered each other with snowballs during the winter break.
3. He felt the cold wind pelter his face as he rode his bike up the hill.
4. During the game, the players were peltered with confetti from the excited crowd.
5. As the hail began to pelter down, we sought shelter under a nearby awning.
6. The children laughed and squealed as they peltered each other with snowballs during the winter storm.
7. As the storm intensified, the rain began to pelter against the windows, creating a soothing rhythm.
8. The players took to the field, peltering the ball back and forth with incredible speed and precision.
9. During the festival, it was a tradition for attendees to pelter each other with colorful confetti and streamers.
10. He couldn't help but grin as he watched the kids pelter each other with water balloons on a hot summer day.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pelter>