

PELTING

Meaning: PELTING: the act of falling or striking forcefully and rapidly, often used to describe rain or snow hitting a surface.

1. The rain was pelting against the windows, creating a soothing rhythm.
2. Children laughed as they ran outside to enjoy the pelting snowflakes.
3. During the storm, hailstones were pelting down like tiny missiles.
4. She felt invigorated by the pelting waves crashing against the shore.
5. The relentless pelting of the wind made it difficult to hear anything else.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pelting>