

PEND

Meaning: To pend means to be in a state of awaiting a decision or resolution.

1. The decision to hire new staff will pend until the board meeting next week.
2. She felt a sense of anticipation as she waited for the results to pend before the final announcement.
3. The project timeline will pend based on the completion of the initial phase.
4. He decided to pend his travel plans until he received confirmation from his colleagues.
5. The legal dispute will pend in court until both parties reach an agreement.
6. The decision to hire new staff will pend until the budget review is complete.
7. She watched the clock as the final minutes of the game began to pend with tension.
8. His application for a loan will pend until all necessary documents are submitted.
9. The outcome of the investigation will pend further analysis from the experts.
10. We will have to pend our travel plans until we receive confirmation from the host.
11. The decision to approve the new policy will pend until further review next month.
12. She decided to pend her travel plans until she received confirmation of her job interview.
13. The court has chosen to pend the ruling on the case, leaving the outcome uncertain for now.
14. Financial aid applications will pend for additional documentation from several applicants.
15. As the project faced unforeseen challenges, the team chose to pend the launch date for a few weeks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pend>