

PENDENCY

Meaning: PENDENCY: the state of being pending or awaiting a decision or resolution.

1. The pendency of the case has caused significant delays in the project's timeline.
2. Due to the pendency of the application, we cannot issue a final decision at this time.
3. The court's ruling is still pending, leaving the pendency of justice in question.
4. There is a certain level of uncertainty that comes with the pendency of legal proceedings.
5. The pendency of unresolved issues often complicates negotiations between the parties involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pendency>