

PENITENT

Meaning: Penitent: a person who feels or expresses remorse for their sins or wrongdoing.

1. The penitents walked slowly through the streets, their heads bowed in reflection.
2. In the quiet chapel, the priest listened intently as the penitents confessed their sins.
3. She felt truly penitential after realizing the impact of her thoughtless words.
4. The community welcomed the penitents back with open arms after their journey of redemption.
5. His penitential nature compelled him to seek forgiveness from those he had wronged.
6. The penitents gathered in silence, seeking solace for their past mistakes.
7. In the dim light of the chapel, the penitents confessed their sins, hoping for forgiveness.
8. Feeling truly penitently, he vowed to change his ways and make amends with those he had wronged.
9. The community welcomed the penitents, offering support and understanding as they sought redemption.
10. Her penitential journey taught her the value of humility and compassion towards others.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/penitent>