

PENITENTIAL

Meaning: Relating to or expressing remorse for one's sins or wrongdoings, often involving acts of penance or reflection.

1. The priest delivered a penitential sermon that encouraged the congregation to reflect on their actions.
2. After a long period of self-reflection, she finally embraced a penitential lifestyle, seeking forgiveness for her past mistakes.
3. The penitential season of Lent is a time for believers to engage in fasting and self-denial.
4. In his penitential prayers, he sought solace and guidance to mend his fractured relationships.
5. The artist's latest work featured themes of penitential sorrow, exploring the depths of remorse and redemption.
6. The penitential season of Lent encourages self-reflection and repentance.
7. He wore a penitential expression after realizing the impact of his careless words.
8. In many religious traditions, penitential rituals are essential for spiritual cleansing.
9. The monk spent hours in a penitential state, seeking forgiveness for his past mistakes.
10. Her penitential attitude during the meeting indicated she understood the gravity of her actions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/penitential>