

PENITENTIALLY

Meaning: In a manner expressing sorrow for sins or wrongdoing; with a sense of repentance.

1. She approached the altar penitentially, reflecting on her past mistakes.
2. The congregation sang hymns penitentially, each note echoing their remorse.
3. He walked penitentially through the rain, feeling the weight of his regrets.
4. The artist created a piece that captured the essence of suffering and penitentially longing.
5. In her heart, she felt a penitential urge to seek forgiveness from those she had wronged.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/penitentially>