

PENMAN

Meaning: Penman: a person skilled in the art of writing, especially in decorative or calligraphic styles.

1. The talented penman crafted intricate calligraphy that captivated everyone at the art show.
2. As a skilled penman, she was renowned for her ability to transform simple letters into stunning works of art.
3. The historian discovered an ancient manuscript written by a penman whose identity remained a mystery.
4. During the workshop, the instructor emphasized the importance of precision in penmanship for aspiring penmen.
5. In the world of literature, the penman left behind a legacy of beautifully penned letters and essays.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/penman>