PENNINERVED

Meaning: PENNINERVED: characterized by having a prominent central vein with smaller veins branching off, resembling a feather-like pattern in leaves.

1. The leaves of the tropical plant were beautifully penninerved, showcasing intricate patterns of veins.

2. As the artist painted, he admired how the penninerved structure of the leaves added depth to his composition.

3. She studied the penninerved foliage under the microscope, fascinated by the complexity of its design.

4. The botanist noted the penninerved characteristics of the specimen, indicating its classification within a specific genus.

5. During the hike, they encountered several penninerved plants along the trail, each contributing to the rich biodiversity of the area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/penninerved