

PENOLOGIST

Meaning: A penologist is a specialist who studies the theory and practice of punishment, particularly focusing on rehabilitation and its impact on criminal behavior.

1. A penologist studies the effects of rehabilitation programs on inmate recidivism rates.
2. The conference attracted numerous experts, including renowned penologists and criminal justice scholars.
3. As a penologist, she dedicated her career to understanding the relationship between crime and societal responses.
4. He often collaborated with penologists to develop policies aimed at reducing prison overcrowding.
5. The penologist's research highlighted the importance of mental health support within correctional facilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/penologist>