

PEPO

Meaning: PEPO refers to the seeds or pips of fruits, particularly those of gourds and similar plants, often highlighted in culinary contexts.

1. PEPO is often used in culinary contexts to refer to seeds or pips, especially in fruits.
2. The vibrant colors of the PEPO market were a feast for the eyes, showcasing various types of gourds.
3. During the harvest festival, families gathered to celebrate with PEPO-themed dishes and decorations.
4. The farmer explained how each PEPO variety had its unique flavor profile, enhancing different recipes.
5. Children learned about the growth cycle of PEPO plants during their school garden project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pepo>