

PERCALINE

Meaning: Percaline is a fine, lightweight fabric, often made of cotton or a cotton blend, known for its smooth texture and elegant appearance.

1. The elegant gown was made of delicate percaline, giving it a soft and luxurious feel.
2. She chose a percaline tablecloth for the dinner party, as it added a touch of sophistication to the setting.
3. The artist used percaline fabric to create stunning wall hangings that captivated visitors.
4. After much deliberation, he decided on a percaline cover for the cushions, as it was both durable and beautiful.
5. The percaline curtains fluttered gently in the breeze, casting a serene ambiance in the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/percaline>