

PERCEIVABLE

Meaning: Perceivable refers to something that can be noticed or detected, often through the senses.

1. The changes in the atmosphere were barely perceivable to the untrained eye.
2. Her happiness was perceivable in the way she smiled and laughed.
3. Despite the dim lighting, the artwork's details were still perceivable.
4. The tension in the room was perceivable as everyone waited for the announcement.
5. He spoke in a tone that was perceivable as both calm and reassuring.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perceivable>