

PERCEIVER

Meaning: Perceiver: a person who observes and interprets sensory information, often influenced by personal experiences and biases.

1. The perceiver often interprets reality through the lens of personal experience and bias.
2. As a trained artist, she became a more acute perceiver of color and form in everyday life.
3. In psychology, the role of the perceiver is crucial in understanding how we interpret sensory information.
4. His ability as a perceiver allowed him to notice subtle emotions that others overlooked.
5. Being a skilled perceiver, she could read the room and adjust her approach accordingly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perceiver>