

PERCEPTIBLE

Meaning: Perceptible: able to be noticed or perceived, often to a slight or subtle degree.

1. The changes in temperature were barely perceptible, but they still affected the local wildlife.
2. Her disappointment was perceptible in her voice, even though she tried to hide it.
3. There was a perceptible shift in the atmosphere when the news was announced.
4. He made a perceptible effort to improve his listening skills during the meeting.
5. The artist's subtle brushstrokes created a perceptible depth in the painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perceptible>