PERCEPTIONS

Meaning: Perceptions are the interpretations or understandings of reality and experiences that can differ among individuals based on various factors such as culture and personal background.

1. Perceptions of reality can vary greatly from person to person.
2. Cultural background often shapes our perceptions of art and beauty.
3. Her perceptions of the situation changed after she heard his side of the story.
4. The study aimed to understand how media influences public perceptions of climate change.
5. Challenging our own perceptions can lead to personal growth and understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perceptions