

PERCEPTIVE

Meaning: Perceptive: having or showing keen insight and understanding, particularly in noticing subtle details or underlying meanings.

1. Her perceptive nature allowed her to read between the lines during their conversation.
2. The detective's perceptive instincts helped him solve the case in record time.
3. In a world full of distractions, he remained perceptive to the subtle emotions of those around him.
4. Her perceptive feedback significantly improved the team's overall performance.
5. The artist's perceptive eye captured the essence of the bustling city in her paintings.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perceptive>