

PERFECTIONMENT

Meaning: Perfectionment refers to the process of improving or refining something to achieve a state of perfection.

1. The artist dedicated his life to the perfectionment of his craft, striving for the ultimate masterpiece.
2. In her pursuit of perfectionment, she often overlooked the beauty of the imperfect moments.
3. The company's focus on perfectionment has led to innovative products that truly meet customer needs.
4. He viewed the perfectionment of his skills as a lifelong journey rather than a destination.
5. The perfectionment of their techniques was evident in the elegance of their final performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perfectionment>