

PERMEABLE

Meaning: Permeable: capable of allowing liquids or gases to pass through a material.

1. The scientist explained that the soil was permeable, allowing water to easily flow through it.
2. During the construction of the new building, engineers chose a permeable material for the pavement to enhance drainage.
3. The permeable membrane selectively allows certain gases to pass, making it ideal for filtration processes.
4. In the context of ecology, permeable surfaces can help reduce urban runoff and manage stormwater effectively.
5. The geologist noted that the region's rock formations were highly permeable, facilitating the movement of underground water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/permeable>