

PERMEATION

Meaning: Permeation is the process by which a substance, such as light or gas, spreads or passes through another substance or medium.

1. The permeation of sunlight through the trees created a beautiful mosaic on the forest floor.
2. Scientists are studying the permeation of gases through various materials to improve insulation.
3. The permeation of new technologies into everyday life has transformed how we communicate.
4. Cultural permeation can lead to a richer, more diverse society by blending different traditions.
5. The permeation of saltwater into the freshwater supply poses a serious threat to local ecosystems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/permeation>