

PERPLEX

Meaning: To perplex means to confuse or bewilder someone, making them unable to understand or make sense of something.

1. The complex math problem seemed to perplex the entire class.
2. Her sudden change of plans perplexed her friends, who were not expecting it.
3. He tried to explain the situation, but it only served to perplex his audience further.
4. The intricate plot of the novel will likely perplex readers who prefer straightforward narratives.
5. Despite his extensive knowledge, the unexpected question managed to perplex the seasoned expert.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perplex>