

PERPLEXING

Meaning: Perplexing: causing confusion or difficulty in understanding; puzzling.

1. The scientist faced a perplexing dilemma that challenged her understanding of the phenomenon.
2. His explanation of the complex theory was so perplexing that even the experts struggled to follow.
3. The sudden disappearance of the ancient artifact remains a perplexing mystery for archaeologists.
4. She found his sudden change in behavior perplexing, as it seemed to come out of nowhere.
5. The intricate plot of the novel was both captivating and perplexing, leaving readers guessing until the end.
6. The professor presented a perplexing riddle that left the students scratching their heads.
7. Despite extensive research, the team's findings remained perplexing and defied easy explanation.
8. Her sudden change in behavior was perplexing to all her friends who were used to her predictable patterns.
9. The movie's complex plot twists made for a perplexing viewing experience that prompted much discussion afterward.
10. Navigating the new regulations proved to be a perplexing challenge for the small business owners.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perplexing>