

PERPLEXITY

Meaning: Perplexity is a state of confusion or bewilderment caused by something difficult to understand or solve.

1. The sudden twist in the plot left the audience in a state of perplexity.
2. Her expression was one of perplexity as she tried to solve the complex puzzle.
3. In moments of perplexity, it's often better to take a step back and reevaluate the situation.
4. The scientist faced a perplexity when the results of the experiment defied all expectations.
5. He spoke with such clarity that it dispelled the perplexity surrounding the topic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perplexity>