

PERPLEXIVENESS

Meaning: Perplexiveness refers to the state of being confused or puzzled, often resulting from difficulty in understanding complex information or situations.

1. Her perplexiveness during the meeting was evident as she struggled to grasp the complex concepts being discussed.
2. The child's perplexiveness regarding the rules of the game prompted her to seek clarification from her parents.
3. In the face of such perplexiveness, the scientist dedicated herself to unraveling the intricate mysteries of the universe.
4. His perplexiveness about the sudden changes in his friend's behavior led him to question their long-standing relationship.
5. Despite her perplexiveness, she maintained a calm demeanor, determined to find a solution to the challenging problem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perplexiveness>