

PERRUQUIER

Meaning: PERRUQUIER: A skilled artisan who makes and styles wigs, particularly popular in the 18th century.

1. The perruquier skillfully crafted a stunning wig for the theatrical production.
2. In the 18th century, the perruquier was a highly sought-after artisan in fashionable circles.
3. She visited the perruquier to have her hair styled for the grand ball.
4. His expertise as a perruquier allowed him to create elaborate hairstyles that dazzled his clients.
5. The perruquier shared tips on maintaining the integrity of wigs during a workshop.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/perruquier>