

PERSONALISM

Meaning: Personalism is a philosophical doctrine that prioritizes the intrinsic value and dignity of individual persons, emphasizing the importance of human relationships and experiences.

1. Personalism emphasizes the intrinsic value and dignity of individual persons in philosophical discussions.
2. In a world increasingly driven by technology, personalism calls for a return to valuing human relationships and experiences.
3. The ethical framework of personalism asserts that actions should prioritize the well-being of individuals rather than abstract ideals.
4. Many educators advocate for personalism in the classroom to foster deeper connections between teachers and students.
5. Personalism in politics often challenges utilitarian approaches by insisting on the rights and needs of each individual.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/personalism>